From Our Pastor...

THE CHURCH: WHAT GOD INTENDS IT TO BE

The reflections I write are to be found in a church newsletter, therefore will be primarily read by a church audience. The topic of the church, I find, is timely for there seems to be a growing chasm between belief and church participation, evidenced by an increasingly large number of empty pews on Sunday mornings and the increasing number of folks who believe that a relationship with God is a one-on-one proposition apart from any collective, relational gathering of believers who worship and serve God together. Therefore, I believe it is appropriate to ask and reflect upon a proper definition of the church, that is, what God intends the church to be for God is the one who called the church into existence.

Descriptions of the church are varied. Some believe it to be a place where one can hold membership, a place to go on Sunday mornings or other designated times. Others believe the church to be a collection of believers who share some commonality; i.e. denominational theology and polity; maybe a shared taste and interest in music styles; maybe to make connections for participation and influence in the wider community; quite possibly to hear the "what's-going-on" in other folks' lives. Whatever we might come to believe about the church, we can affirm that God wants the church to be, for God has called it into existence and promises to be present in its gathering. That is, there is a purpose for the church beyond one's own personal, individual relationship with God undertaken outside and apart from the collective body of believers.

I believe that the Apostle Paul has provided clarity for us in discerning the purpose and role of the church and our needed participation within it. In addressing the activity of God in and through Jesus, an activity of blessing and forgiveness and salvation, Paul writes to the church in Ephesus: "And God has put all things under Jesus' feet and has made him the head over all things for the CHURCH, which is his BODY, the FULLNESS of him who fills all in all (1:22-23). Certainly from Paul's perspective, the church's existence, purpose, and activity is to be in line with the fullness of God's intent revealed in the life of Jesus; that is the church is the now gathered presence of God's activity in and through the Risen Jesus manifested in the shared lives (the body) of believers. The church exists and has purpose because God wills it to be.

Paul adds in his address to the Ephesian church: "There is one body and one Spirit, just as you (plural) were called to the one hope of your calling, one baptism, one God and Father of ALL, who is above all and through all and in all" (4:4-5). The church is to be properly understood from God's calling for fullness and peace and not from our narrow appropriations of it. God has equipped the church to carry out and bring fulfillment to God's will. God has given to the church gifts "to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for BUILDING UP the body of Christ, until ALL OF US, come to the UNITY of faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the FULL STATUTE of Christ" (4:12-13).

The church as God intends and calls it to be has a purpose and a goal far beyond the measurement of our individual beliefs and actions. As Paul indicates, "we are members of one another" (4:25). Quite thankfully, we have the grace-filled opportunity from God to worship God together on a regular basis. Might we ask: what forms the choices we make on those Sunday mornings? Too busy? Tired? Lack of interest? Other pressing matters? Dislike of others, maybe the pastor, in that gathering? The list could go on-and-on.

Hopefully, we can all pause and take a moment to reflect upon God's will and purpose for the church.

During OCTOBER, we will have the opportunity to gather as a PARISH, both congregations, to be the church in the unity of our shared worship experiences. Each Sunday morning we will gather for worship at the Elias building, the structure that housed an early Lutheran witness in our area, at 10 AM. The focus of our liturgy, a bit different from our traditional standards, will be to praise and thank God through representations of our histories as the church and on the revitalization and renewal of the church as we seek to follow God's way into an anticipated, promised future. (In addition, there will be time of refreshment— a variety of hot and cold goodies— following worship. More information will follow.) Preliminary themes and readings:

FACING THE GIANTS ... FIREPROOF ... COURAGEOUS WAR ROOM PRAYER IS A POWERFUL WEAPON

Janet & Mike Shoemaker invite you to a showing of the movie War Room. They will be hosting the showing on Sunday, September 16th, at 2:30 PM, in the church sanctuary. They hope you can attend!

Film Synopsis: "With great jobs, a beautiful daughter (Alena Pitts) and a dream house, the Jordans seem to have it all. Appearances can be deceiving, however, as husband Tony (T.C. Stallings) flirts with temptation and wife Elizabeth (Priscilla Shirer) becomes increasingly bitter, crumbling under the strain of a failing marriage. Their lives take an unexpected turn for the better when Elizabeth meets her newest client, Miss Clara (Karen Abercrombie), who encourages the couple to find happiness through prayer."

Property – Jim Schwartz reported that we still have not heard from Silvertip. We were supposed to hear from them by June 29th. He suggested we have the office personnel call Silvertip and see what is going on. The painter has almost completed the painting of the exterior of the building. Jim stated that Bobby Cross said he would make repairs to the ruts in the lawn from the lift. Jim stated the Carillion is not working. He said Emil Stenger reattached some wires while he was up winding the clock, but that did not fix the issue with the Carillion. Jeff Mensch stated that Heather spoke with the company and they are going to ship a box to us to ship the Carillion back to them for repairs. Jim reported he received a bid of $450 to remove the dead trees in the alley. It will be an extra $250 for stump and root removal. Jeff Mensch made a motion to have the trees cut down for $450. Jane Moore seconded the motion. Motion was approved. Jim asked if someone donated the $250 for stump removal, could we go ahead and have them removed. Council agreed.

"It got the team thinking of where they want to go next year and they decided Puerto Rico." Gary stated they are planning on a Work Camp to Puerto Rico in June. Gary also reported that the trip to Harvey Cedars was great as well. The youth also helped with the kids games at the park for the Fourth of July and had a lemonade and walking taco stand. There will be a meeting of the youth and parents to plan for this year, on Sunday, August 5th at the park. Sunday, August 19th the youth will share their experiences, at Work Camp and Harvey Cedars, with the congregation.

Staff Support – Linda Skinner reported that she, Harry Boyer and the Staff Support Committee met with all of the staff. She said the only complaint they heard from everyone was communication needs to improve. She asked that whenever there is a change in the scheduling, to make sure others, that the change may be affecting, are notified, Housekeeper, Sexton, Diane, etc. Linda made a motion to start giving Loretta a Weis and Wenger's gift cards to purchase housekeeping supplies when needed. Jeff Mensch seconded the motion. Motion was approved by council..

Jeff stated that it is up to the Borough to put the handicap parking spot there. Jeff suggested to Harry to contact Jason Mitchell with the Borough. Harry said he will contact Jason.

Janet Shoemaker: Harry Boyer reported that Janet Shoemaker has requested permission to show the movie, War Room, in the sanctuary on Sunday, September 16th at 2:30 PM. Gary Girton questioned who will run the projector and equipment needed to show the movie. Jeff Mensch made a motion to allow Janet to show the movie War Room on, September 16th at 2:30 PM. Gary Girton seconded the motion. Motion approved. Janet will need to write up what she wants put in the bulletin and find someone to operate the equipment.

Preschool: Harry Boyer reported Kris Lamey was not able to attend the council meeting because she just had surgery. He asked that the office personnel call Kris and ask what her enrollment numbers are for this year.

Locking Building: Jeff Mensch reported that Heather told him the door locks were not working on the backdoor again the other day and she had to continuously run up and down to let people in. Council discussed having the doors open when someone was in the office. Cher Girton suggested leaving the side preschool door open when someone was in the office. This way they can hear if someone comes in. The alley doors would remain locked. Council agreed that would be a better idea and to go ahead and try it.

Harry Boyer closed the meeting with prayer and adjourned at 2014.

Respectfully submitted,

Cher Girton
